Major Events of 1492—January–December

1. January 2 – Boabdil, the last Moorish Emir of Granada, surrenders his city to the army of Ferdinand and Isabella after a lengthy siege, ending the 10-year Granada War and the centuries-long Reconquista which brought an end to 780 years of Muslim control in Al-Andalus. Christopher Columbus is in Alhambra, and sees the Moorish king come out of the city gates and kiss the hands of the Spanish king, queen and prince.
2. January 6 – Ferdinand and Isabella enter into Granada.
3. January 23 – The Pentateuch is first printed.
4. March 31 – Ferdinand and Isabella sign the Alhambra decree, expelling all Jews from Spain unless they convert to Roman Catholicism.
5. April 17 – The Capitulations of Santa Fe were signed.
6. July 31 – The Jews are expelled from Spain; 130,000–800,000 leave. Sultan Bayezid II of the Ottoman Empire, learning about the expulsion of Jews from Spain, dispatches the Ottoman Navy to bring the Jews safely to Ottoman lands, mainly to the cities of Thessaloniki (currently in Greece), İzmir (currently in Turkey), Zagreb, and other parts of North Africa, Western Europe, and the Middle East.
7. August 3 – Christopher Columbus sails on his first voyage across the Atlantic Ocean, intending to reach Asia.
8. August 11 – Pope Alexander VI succeeds Pope Innocent VIII as the 214th pope, after the 1492 papal conclave, the first held in the Sistine Chapel.
9. October – English army besieges Boulogne-sur-Mer.
10. October 12 – Christopher Columbus' expedition makes landfall in the Caribbean and lands on Guanahani, but he believes he has reached the East Indies.
11. October 28 – Christopher Columbus lands in Cuba.
12. November 3 – Peace of Etaples signed between England and France, ending French support for the pretender to the English throne Perkin Warbeck. All English-held territory in France with the exception of Calais is returned to France.
13. December 5 – Christopher Columbus becomes the first known European to set foot on the island of Hispaniola.
14. December 31 – About 100,000 Jews are expelled from Sicily.
